Each student needs to attend a club meeting after Club Rush before the due date that is set in class. Each student will write a reflection on that experience to turn in on the due date. The reflections must be at least one full page, typed in a standard font, and single spaced. The reflection should address all of the following questions:

What is the name of the club you went to?

When was the meeting?

Where was the meeting?

Who is the club advisor?

What does the club do? What is their next activity/event?

Make sure you introduce yourself to at least one new person at the club and get the following information:

What is the club members name?

How long have they been a member of this club?

Why are they interested in the club?

Before you are done with the reflection, think and write about the following questions:

What did you like about the meeting? Why?

Was there anything that concerned you about the meeting? Why or why not?

Are you likely to keep attending the meetings? Why or why not?
