

Questions for Media websites.

1. Go to the CNN, FOX News, and BBC websites. What are the headline stories? How do these stories differ from one another?
2. What other stories are covered on the websites? How is the order of these stories different in each website?
3. What sensational stories are covered? Give two examples.
4. Are there stories that show a liberal or conservative bias? What are they? What is the evidence of bias?
5. What syndicated correspondents or editorials are covered? What is their ideological position?
6. Go to the KTLA News website. What stories are covered? What are the differences between local, national, and world news coverage?
7. Pick one of the websites and examine it for structural bias. Is there a bias in the kinds of stories that are covered? What is this bias? What is your evidence of this bias?